A screenshot of a Zoom meeting interface. The main window displays a video feed from 'AVerVision 3' showing a person's hands holding a complex, multi-colored (pink, blue, and white) origami structure. The window title bar includes 'AVerVision 3', 'You are viewing Honda David's screen', and 'View Options'. Below the video feed is a toolbar with various icons for navigation and interaction. To the right, a grid of smaller video thumbnails shows other participants, including 'Yana Mohanty' and 'Honda David'. The bottom of the screen features a standard Zoom control bar with icons for mute, video, chat, and a 'Leave' button.

The main display area shows a dark grey surface with a pink paper flower in the center. Above the flower are two strips of paper: a pink one with numbers 2, 3, 4 and a white one with numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 1/2. To the left of the flower are a pink strip and a white strip. The interface includes a toolbar at the bottom with icons for camera, gallery, and other functions.

Press (⇧⌘A) to unmute or hold space bar to temporarily unmute.

A bottom navigation bar with icons for participants (8), chat, screen sharing, and a smiley face.
